A Chapman of Arlington, dropped in upon us last Saturday.

Maxwell next week Wednesday and Thursday. New plays.

Little Ray Chappell who broke his arm last week, is getting along nicely.

Prof. C. H. Sage of Three Rivers, made Paw Paw a flying visit last week.

Mrs. Samuel Ellis of Decatur, has been visiting friends here for a few days.

Born, in Aberdeen, Dak., Sept. 17th, 1884, grand-daughter No. 1 to Mrs. Elsie Duerke.

Ira Brott and family are stopping in town for a time. Ira is engineer on the C. & N.
W. R. R.

That patent buckwheat flour of Wise & Smith's makes good flapjacks. We have sampled it.

Mrs. A. E. Bulson nee Breck of Broad-head, Wis., is visiting her parents and friends in this vicinity.

A. G. Higgins will make Gloversville, N. Y., his home in the future. He left for that place on Monday last.

A young barber recently put in an appearance at the residence of C. P. Long, and Claude is happy. Weight 7 pounds.

Married, at Lawton on the 8th inst., Mr.
John T. Grover to Miss Mary B. Moon, both of Paw Paw, Rev. H. West officiating.

Mrs. J. J. Carroll and Miss Jennie Bennett, left on Monday for South Bend, Ind., where they will remain for a few days visiting their friends.

The Dowagiac hotels are severely criticised by those who attended the fair, many declaring the entertainment the poorest they ever had.

Horsemen who attend the mass meeting at Decatur on Thursday, will meet at the court house at 9 o'clock sharp. They will be escorted by the Paw Paw silver cornet band.

On Friday last, O. W. Rowland and his daughter Mamie, together with his father, navigated the raging Paw Paw from this village to Lawrence. There was considerable hard work, but lots of fun.

The total receipts at our late county fair were $1007. Expenses $720. The premium list amounts to $207, of which the balance on hand will not pay 50 per cent, and premiums will have to be scaled down accordingly.

On Tuesday evening of last week a young lad of this place stole $35 from the money-drawer at Sellick's store. In deference to the feelings of his mother and her many friends, we withhold the name of the offender.

Jacob High, Esq., was in town the other day rejoicing greatly over the fact that his Norman stallion, Vandal, with his colts, took the sweepstakes premium at Dowagiac, over all competitors. It made Jake feel pretty well.

George Matthews of Sioux Falls, Dakota, arrived last Friday and returned with Mrs.
Matthews this week. Geo. reports business very flourishing, and says Sioux Falls is now a full-fledged city, even to sporting electric lights, and water-works.

The union fair held at Dowagiac last week was a grand success, the display in all departments being good, especially in floral hall. Van Buren county succeeded in getting away with a large percentage of the premiums awarded to stock exhibits.

The other day we heard a man remark "One of the most delightful things in this world is to be obliged to listen to a young miss pound the piano and screech at the top of her voice, under the impression that she can play and sing." Well, well, there is no accounting for tastes!

J. F. Bullard has again returned from Dakota, having sold all his personal property, reserving his farm alone. Jim says he is tired of keeping bachelor's hall, and does not think he shall go back another year, the date of his next journey being rather indefinite, but when he does go, shall take his family with him.

The case of the People vs. Truman Baker and Adeline Westervelt, before Justice Rowland on Wednesday of last week, was not pro'd. Mr. Baker was immediately re-arrested on a charge of rape, preferred against him by Flora Westervelt, his step-daughter.
The examination was set for the 15th inst. at 1 o'clock p. m., and in default of $1000 bail the respondent was committed to jail to await such examination.

A barbed-wire fence is a bad thing for a young man to encounter on a dark night, especially when pursued by an irate father.
Eh, Charlie?

Many of our readers will remember the gang of counterfeits broken up at Lawton by officer McCabe some eight years ago, and Mrs. Lydia Ballou who was sentenced to one year in the Kalamazoo jail. On Wednesday last, Mrs. Ballou was brought here violently insane and is now at the county jail awaiting action of the probate judge.

The Van Buren county board of school examiners issued 278 certificates within the school year ending June 1884, of which there were 5 first, 17 second, and 256 third grades.
As the county contained but 152 school districts during this year, these statistics entirely explode the statements that only sufficient teachers were licensed to fill the schools, while all other applicants were rejected.

A traveling man dropped into our office a few days since on a little matter of business, and, in the course of conversation, remarked that he had just come from Bangor. He said he saw a flaming Cleveland and Hendricks sign in front of a certain building there, and, taking it to be democratic headquarters, dropped in to hear the political news, etc. He found himself in a liquor-shop instead of a democratic club room, but, said he, "I didn't think the mistake was worth minding, as the difference between the two is too slight to be worthy of mention."

The Board of Supervisors convened on Monday last. The following is a list of the committees appointed, viz.: Comparing Rolls—Supervisors Nutting, Blakeman, Monroe, Watson, Summey, Bartley, Buck. Fountaining—Dillman, French, Thomas. Estimate—Blakeman, Nutting, Thomas, Watson. Equalization—French, Boyce, Moore, Dillman, Buck. Apportionment—Collins, Summey, Blakeman, Bartley. Claims—Kilheffer, Kix, Monroe, Young, Wise. Agriculture—Young, Monroe, Boyce. County Buildings—Young, Monroe, Boyce, Collins, French. Rejected Taxes—Nutting, Kilheffer, Young. To settle with Treasurer and Clerk —Kilheffer, Moore, Nutting. Highways and Bridges—Blakeman, Wise, Watson. County Printing—Nutting, Young, French.

Observer's Observations.
We are here again, as usual.

The corn-huskers have commenced business.

Insects are at work in some early-sown pieces of wheat.

Tommy Galligan and wife have gone to Wisconsin on a visit.

Good wheat brings 70 cents a bushel and ordinary barn 75 cents.

The cider-makers have commenced grinding up little worms for cider.

The fair is all ended and the last ball has been held home by the nose.

The buckwheat crop is just enormous, and is bringing 45 cents per bushel.

Good winter apples are selling for one dollar a barrel, delivered at the stations.

The cyclone season is over and people can rest at ease till the first day of April next.

Tom Welch is putting on lots of airs over the fact that a Wilkes colt trotted the other day in 2:16 1/2, and another in 2:16 1/4.

Fred Covert, the good-looking druggist, has moved his family into Dr. Andrews' house, recently vacated by Frank Millington.

John Lee's trial will come off in December.
It was expected he would be tried at the September term, but the people were not ready. John's attorneys moved to admit the respondent to bail, but the motion was denied. I. E. Barnum is one of his attorneys.

George Benson, a Decatur soldier, got mad a short time ago because his pension claim was not settled, and wrote Uncle Sam a letter telling him he could go to — with it; he was going to Iowa. George hadn't more than got to Pokagon before his claim was adjusted, allowing him about $1100 back pay and $6 per month as long as he lives.

Two boys were going home from the fair the other night, one 75 years old and the other a little younger. The oldest was driving a single horse before a top buggy and singing, very happy, some camp-meeting hymn, while the other sat by him leading a cow behind, with a blue ribbon tied to her left horn, singing "While we were marching through Georgia." As they got opposite the post-office a little dog ran out, grabbed the cow by the tail, when the singing suddenly stopped; the carriage went over; the boys went out in a pile together, one hanging to the horse, the other to the cow. The carriage was somewhat demoralized and so were the boys. One has been laid up ever since by a rope-burn in his left hand, and the other has gone to Wisconsin for his health.
We are acquainted with these boys, and can safely say that neither of them was intoxicated at the time.

VICTORY!

Ohio Joins the Republi- can Column.

20,000 Majority.

As we go to press the latest news from Ohio indicates a republican majority of not less than 16,000, with a probability of 20,000 or more. This virtually settles the November contest in favor of Blaine and Logan. The news from West Virginia is very meager.
The state is claimed by the democrats.
